

Check Your Free Credit Report on 2/2, 6/6, 10/10 reports, so paying for credit monitoring or related services is typically unnecessary.

- Reading a credit report can initially be intimidating, and fyi.uwex.edu/creditreport walks you through the process.

We encourage you to mark your calendars on 2/2, 6/6, and 10/10 this and every year as a reminder to request a copy of your free report on those days. "2/2, 6/6, 10/10" is meant as a simple way to remember to pull your free credit reports regularly. You may want to provide your email address here to automatically receive reminder emails on those dates. Visit this website's other pages to learn how to obtain and read your credit report.

- Credit reports are increasingly important to everyday life—getting a job, obtaining an affordable loan or insurance policy, or renting a home.
- Each person is responsible for the accuracy of the information in his or her credit report, but only about 4 in 10 Wisconsin adults check their reports each year.
- In our WI campaign, around 10% of participants find an error in their report.
- Everybody is entitled by law to three free credit reports each year through AnnualCreditReport.com. Free reports provide the same information as paid
